BMFA – Coach’s Code of Ethics

Sportsmanship

- Build self-esteem through teamwork.
- Identify and build on each player’s strength.
- Foster positive communication amongst parent, player and coaching staff.
- Set a good example as role model.

On The Field Behaviour

- Shall be of a positive nature at all times.
- This to be accomplished by, but not limited to, making coaching decisions which are in the best interests of all the players on both teams.
- It is a MUST that you familiarize yourself with BMFA, COMFL and Football Canada playing rules.

Off The Field Behaviour

- Shall be of a positive nature at all times, actively promoting and supporting the goals of the BMFA and its Board of Directors.

Any coach who is found by the Board of Directors to be in contravention of the aforementioned Coach’s code of Ethics will be subject to a minimum one game suspension and possible expulsion as a coach. A second infraction will result in immediate expulsion.
